American Ballet Theatre

Ithaca College Sets October 22 For Ballet at Kulp Auditorium

The Ithaca College Lecture-Concert series will sponsor the American Ballet Theatre on October 22, 1963. The performance will be held in the Ithaca High School. Tickets are available at the Student Union Information Desk, the downtown box office and Fred's Record Shop.

The company will perform the "Piano Concerto #1" by Mendelssohn, "Jardin Aux Lilas" by Chausson, "Pas de Deux—Flower Festival" by Halsted and "Theme and Variations" by Tchaikovsky.

"Concerto," William Dollar's latest addition to the American Ballet Theatre repertory is a ballet in the modern classical style. The ballet is set to Mendelssohn's Piano Concerto No. 1 and is designed to show the technique of the corps de ballet, as well as, the principal dancers.

"Jardin Aux Lilas" or "Lilac Garden," which as the first of Antony Tudor's great psychological ballets started a new trend in ballet choreography. Set to the music of Chausson's "Poeme," the work has been in the repertory of American Ballet Theatre since its first season in 1940.

"Flower Festival" with choreography by August Bournonville is newly adapted by Harold Lander. The music is from "Flower Festival at Genzano" by Edvard Halsted.

The American Ballet Theatre has appeared before more governmental officials and dignitaries through the years than any other ballet company. So that when the company was summoned to the White House in May 1962 to dance before President and Mrs. Kennedy and their guests President and Mrs. Houphouet-Boigny of the Ivory Coast, it was like putting the finishing touches to a long list of heads of state for which the company had already danced.

With its seven foreign tours from 1946-1960 the company had danced before royalty and heads of state in 37 foreign countries including the Soviet Union, but this was the first time in the 24 years since its organization that it had danced for the President of its own country.

In 1960 during American Ballet Theatre's tour of Russia, Premier and Mrs. Khrushchev attended the final performance in Moscow and afterwards gave an intimate supper party for the stars of the company. This was a unique experience since the Russians are supposed to be the most critical of all ballet audiences.

Last December during the company's season in Washington, D.C., President and Mrs. Kennedy attended a second performance of American Ballet Theatre. Needless to say there was a great deal of excitement generated backstage amongst the dancers due to the presence of the First Family. When asked for their reactions, the dancers stated that while there is always a certain amount of excitement about dancing for other heads of state, there is nothing compared to dancing before your own President.

Co-ordinating & Review Board Sponsors Fall Weekend Events

by Maureen Daley

Ithaca College's annual Co-ordinating and Review Board sponsored Fall Weekend will be held tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday, October 11, 12, and 13.

"Sentimental Season" will be the general theme of the Weekend, which features several dances, a Hootenanny, and a football game between the IC Bombers and their traditional rivals, Cortland's Red Dragons.

"SUMMER'S GONE"

A pre-Cortland Pep Rally will begin the Weekend's festivities tomorrow night at 8 p.m. Phi E K is sponsoring the Rally, which will be held on the middle quad at South Hill. A Red Dragon procession will start the rally. Pep songs, school cheers and IC's Fight Song will be led by Ithaca College Cheerleaders. The Red Dragon will then be burned in effigy to cries of "Beat Cortland" and "Go, Bombers."

The Senior and Sophomore Classes will sponsor the other Friday events: a Hootenanny, from 9 to 11 p.m., with the Barkley Squares, Tom Pasle and a female vocalist; and a dance from 11 to 1 a.m., with music by Ronnie and the Prophets.

IC Coeds will receive 2 a.m. permissions if they have proof of their attendance at these events. During the dance beer and soft drinks will be sold by Rho Mu Theta.

"HARVEST MOON"

Saturday, October 12, will see the Bombers assembled on the South Hill football field to battle the Red Dragons of Cortland in IC's first home game of the season.

At half-time, Freshmen will battle Sophomores in a tug-of-war to determine whether Beanies go.

"The Harvest Moon Dance," featuring a Midnight Court Processional (see page 4 for candidates), will be held in the Rec Room from 10 to 2 a.m. Billy May's Orchestra will provide dancing music.

A "spiked" punch will be served free during the dance, and soft drinks will also be on sale. A 3 a.m. curfew will be given Saturday night with proof of attendance.

Delta Phi Zeta will sponsor Sunday's dance, "Autumn Leaves," with music by Big Daddy and the Duquanes. The dance will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. The Women's Student Government is sponsoring a "Penny Night" allowing co-eds to stay out until 11:30 p.m. Sunday.

Members of the Women's Athletic Association will sell tickets to the Weekend. A Weekend ticket will cost $8.50; individual tickets will cost $3.50 for Friday night, $5.00 for Saturday night, and $2.50 for Sunday afternoon.

At the Friday and Saturday night dances, proof of age will be required for students wishing beer or punch.

LITTLE THEATER OPENS OCT. 16 WITH MOLIÈRE'S FAMOUS FARCE

Ithaca College Physical Therapy Students Get Aid

Several Ithaca College Physical Therapy students were the recipients of scholarship grants this semester.

The grants, made available by the Vocational Rehabilitation Administration of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, were given to Junior and Senior students.

The awarding of these scholarships was based on students' academic achievement, financial need and professional potential. Students receiving this aid are required to continue their studies in Physical Therapy during the period the grant covers.

Senior students, now studying at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine, who received scholarship grants were: Carolyn White, Jeanne Gagnon and Fred Bradley.

The Juniors who received awards were: Betsy Bartholomew, Sue Draper, Roberta Hepner, Peggy Kneale, and Roberta Bleiman.

Kay Hamlin, Gail Greenberg, Doph Shapilo, and Linda Norton also received awards.

The 1963-64 season at the Ithaca College Theater opens with Molière's famous farce, "THE DOCTOR IN SPITE OF HIMSELF." It will be presented by the Drama and Speech Department for four performances, October 16-19th.

In a novel production scheme, a troupe of commedia dell'arte actors will set up their stage in a village square and proceed to romp through the zany script which has been amusing audiences since the reign of Louis XIV. Although it contains many barbed comments on doctors and the practice of medicine, the play concentrates on laugh-getting gags and pure fun.

The play will be directed by Robert Bardwell, with special costumes designed for this production by Vergiu Cornea; settings and lighting are by Alan G. Leach.

The central role of Sganarelle will be played by Sal Mistretta, a sophomore in the Drama Department. He will be aided and abetted by Nancy Smith, Judy Lane, Allen Rockwerk, Roger Ochs, John Noble, Tim Hicks, Audrie Zerul, and John Messerschmitt.

All I.C. students are eligible for one free ticket for each play in the series of Drama Dept. plays. All a student has to do is come to the theatre box office, downtown, and show his ID card. All seats are reserved.

W.S.G. HOLDS PENNY NIGHT; FUNDS USED FOR FOSTER CHILD

Women's Student Government will sponsor a "Penny Night" on Sunday, the last night of Fall Weekend, to obtain funds for the support of a foster child.

By paying a penny for each minute they stay out after the regular 10:30 curfew, I.C. coeds may extend their curfew until 11:30 p.m.

By participating in "Penny Night" the girls and their dates will be contributing to the welfare of a ten-year-old Greek foster child, Antigone, adopted by W.S.G. through the Foster Parents Plan, Inc.

Antigone lives in Kalamatas, Greece with her mother, and is a sixth grade grammar school student.

School Spirit

What is school spirit? Isn't it some sort of potential, which when acted upon by a catalyst, will unleash a chain reaction yielding after-effects for some time?

Examples to clarify the terms "spirit," "potential" and "catalyst" can be drawn from the Music Man. Who can forget that musical instrument salesman who came to a dusty, dead, hick town to set up a children's band? He made that town come alive. He was a catalyst. Just about all the people from the little boy who lisped to some of those "old fogies" began realizing they had the potential to hum a tune and work together. The musical instrument salesman gave that town the magical spirit of "76 Trombones!"

But that man was a cheater. He made the townspeople so filled with a community spirit that they were deceived into believing they had more potential than they should have had for a town so mediocre. They didn't have "76 trombones;" they didn't even have six.

Ithaca College has great advantage over that one-horse town because it abounds with potential! What better band can be organized for football games than one from the fine musicians on campus. How about the football team who made the good stand against the bigger league Temple team. What better circumstances is there than the traditional rivalry between Ithaca and Cortland plus almost 2,000 students without the "old fogish" lack of vigor?

Ithaca College has that potential for School Spirit and the circumstances for a great unleashing lie in Fall Weekend. The missing element is the catalyst.

Why not attend the Pep Rally and bring cowbells, oogah horns, and ten-cent plastic whistles. That volunteer Pep band will play loud, but enough enthusiastic noise-making could drown it out. Scream and yell and sing the "Fight Song" like a bunch of rabble rousers. Out-jump the cheerleaders and let the football players know that you want Cortland crushed back against their goalpost.

The Pep Rally is just the beginning. Next come the big events Rick Boyd spent the summer planning. What, no dates? How about the trick Cornell fraternities aren't too proud to use? Phone dorms one through five. Call Delta Phi Zeta and the other sororities. Let the girls know you need dates for all the guys on your floor. And girls: Simple, just answer the phone.

To be a catalyst all you have to do is uninhibit yourself a little—enough to have a great time. You will probably not be the Music Man who single-handedly created the magic of spirit.

But if you and 1888 other students blow your whistle, drink the wine punch and participate in the half time Tug of War, you'll all unleash School Spirit. You all will feel alive.

Four Point System

Effective this Fall semester, the Administration has instituted the Four Point Marking System to replace the Three Point System which has been used in the past. A's are now worth 4 points, B's worth 3, C's worth 2, D's worth 1 and F's worth 0. Under the Three Point System A's were worth 3, B's were worth 2, C's worth 1, and D's and F's worth 0.

The switch from the Three Point System to the Four Point System represents a switch in philosophy. In the past, students failing a subject may have accepted the F and studied harder for the courses they could pass. The reasoning, which worked under the Three Point System, was that since D's and F's were both worth zero quality points, the student would do better to increase a passing grade. The transition will cancel this theory and cause those students affected to suffer a drop in their rank in class, if they never boosted their failing grade.

The Ithacan recommends that the Administration treat the Four Point System like the Stable Tuition Plan and start it with the Freshman Class. There is no reason why members of the three upper classes should be penalized now because a new system was developed.

"SAY UNCLE!"

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Our sincere apologies are extended to both the Ithacan and the Cayugan for a most unfortunate error which omitted the write-up of these two publications from the recent issue of the Blue and Gold.

The write-up was included in the original copy but was inadvertently left out at the time of publication.

Yours truly,
Helen H. Hood
Dean of Women

Dear Editor:

President Dillingham announced recently that the entire student body would switch from its traditional Three Point Index System to a Four Point System.

President Dillingham's argument that the Four Point System is an improvement over the Three Point System is logical because it differentiates numerically between a "D" and an "F".

However, upperclassmen with "F" letter grades on their records now, may find themselves:

1. on probation
2. unable to graduate
3. ineligible for honor societies
4. unable to enter graduate school
5. with limited job opportunities

Here's proof:

Take the following hypothetical case of a student with the following grades in five, three-credit courses: A, B, C, D, and F.

Three Point System
Credit Hours		Quality Points
A 3		9
B 3		6
C 3		3
F 3		0
A 1.2 index on a 3 point system.
Four Point System
Credit Hours		Quality Points
A 3		12
B 3		9
C 3		6
F 3		0

A 2.0 index on a 4 point system. The index should move to a 2.2 index to be the same on the Four Point System as on the Three Point System. There is a 0.2 difference in this student's index.

In making this new ruling the administration is discriminating against a minority for the sake of expediency.

This new ruling is ex post facto. Upperclassmen should be subject to and allowed to graduate under the same rulings which were in effect when they entered Ithaca College.

Sincerely,
Robert McGuckin

Dear Editor:

What is the W.S.G. for? As stated in the Blue and Gold the W.S.G. is to "dedicate their efforts to fostering and maintaining the ideals of democratic self-government in keeping with our American heritage."

Is this the case at Ithaca College? An incident has occurred on the South Hill Campus involving two girls "accused" of breaking dormitory regulations. The fact

Student Government

by Mike Ayers

One could say freely without fear of reprisal that there aren't many colleges in this country without a Men's Student Government. Yet, Ithaca College survived for 71 years before a MSG was necessary. How come?

Ron Brown, president of MSG says the need for a government for men became evident with the growing enrollment in the past 5 years. Until this year, men were represented in Student Council by no more than 28 representatives, and in House Councils by a relatively inefficient corp of poorly trained students lead by "advisors" needing much advice themselves.

Perhaps the answer for scores of years of freedom lies in the "traditional" IC problem—a split campus. With the campus community divided into colonies, men could govern themselves with relative ease and not have to worry about the total male population. But, South Hill, with its modern facilities and all its beauty, presented a problem of three-fourths of the male population being housed in one dormitory complex.

With 2 "panty raids" in the past 2 years, the problem of large numbers of males living in the vicinity of women's dorms becomes evident. When 10 male students were asked to leave after the second silk scandal, IC's men became militant. They felt they were dealt with unjustly. They were, but who could come to their defense?

Student Council acted as the male voice where most colleges would have had a Men's Government intervene. But, MSG at IC will be, hopefully, more effective in raising male morale and diverting male energy into constructive actions.

Now with 1100 men at IC, MSG will be broken down into House Councils, Representatives to MSG, a Student Council Rep., and a general co-ordination between each living complex, student Court, and Student government. The role men play in government and organizations on the IC campus in the next few years will be a constant reminder that it's a man's world.

"Kampus Kapers" presents New Idea for Student Listening

by Ruth Clington

Radio WICB returned to the Ithaca College campus Monday, October 7, with a variety of entertainment and information. The listener found many innovations, including a new concept of student broadcasting. "Kampus Kapers" is one of these new ideas, involving a student-inclined program. The station itself is run by the members of the Radio-Television Department.

"The Kapers" is specifically for the student body and faculty. The program will be broadcast every day from 12:00 to 1:00 p.m. It will be broadcast directly to the South Hill Student Union, and piped into the lounges, cafeteria, and snackbar. Quarry will also be able to receive the station. This is made possible through the acquisition of new equipment and transmitters over the summer by the Radio-TV Department.

On Kampus Kapers, students will find a variety of program. It is a "magazine" type show, according to the students involved, and as such does not concentrate on any one field—only in appealing to the student body as a whole.

This program will present interviews with people vital to IC, such as officials of the school, members of MSG and WSG, and Student Council; a Trade Korner which will advertise items for students and organizations for a nominal fee; late developments on campus, and bus schedule changes; a Thursday review of local movies for students who would like to know what's best for dating purposes; and music suitable for helping the digestive processes.

Various merchants are sponsoring the Kapers and other broadcasts. Since the station is primarily for students, specials just for them will be announced. Bargains will be announced, and many promotional schemes are being planned. The main idea is to interest college people in dealing with local stores.

Kampus Kapers is a team effort, according to Frank Sibilio, producer. The staff consists of chief engineer, Don Fuller; announcers Dave Bresnick, "Machine Gun" Pete Gippert, Art Moore, John Von Sosten, Dave Stuart, and "Pretty Boy" Jack Tirack.

Radio WICB is found on the AM frequency, which is the most common type of radio found on the campus, at 1510 kilocycles. FM radios will receive WICB at 91.7 kilocycles. There will be no AM broadcasting between 1:00 and 6:00 p.m. FM will broadcast from 1:00 til 11:10, and AM will resume from 6:00 to 11:10 p.m. The programs, unless otherwise specified, will be primarily disk-jockey and newscasts.

Club Clips

by Betty Hoerner

A discussion on two of J. D. Salinger's stories opened the first meeting of Epsilon Nu Gamma Tuesday, October 8. The discussion of "Teddy" and "A Perfect Day for Bananafish" from the book of nine short stories by Salinger was led by Mr. LoVecchio, instructor in the English department. The next activity of ENG will be October 29, when they will sponsor the film Oedipus Rex. This film, directed by Tyrone Guthrie and starring the Stratford Festival Players, is open to anyone who purchases a 50 cent ticket in the College Bookstore. Coming attractions for ENG include discussions on Albert Camus, W. H. Auden, and George Bernard Shaw. Anyone interested in literature is welcome to join.

Another club open to the interested is the Modern Foreign Language Club, having its first meeting tonight at 7:30. Miss Barbara Hall of WHCU will give a lecture and show slides on Latin America. Further plans will be discussed at tonight's meeting.

On October 18 and 19, four Forensic students will be sent to a debate workshop at Colgate. Two students, Carl Taraschi and Caroyne Gilbert have been chosen to attend.

"The Individual" to be Topic of Fall Convocation Address

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Each fall, a Convocation is planned for freshmen students, at which the attendance of all freshmen is required. Upperclassmen are urged to attend.

This year, the Convocation will be held on Saturday, October 19, at 10:00 a.m., in the Recreation Room on the top floor of the College Union building. Dr. Carroll V. Newsom, distinguished educator, former President of New York University, Senior Vice-President of Prentice-Hall, Inc., and a member of our Board of Trustees, will deliver the address.

All classes are to be suspended Saturday morning, October 19.

Howard Dillingham
President

Dr. Carroll Newsom will speak about "The Individual" at Fall Convocation, which will be held Saturday, October 19, at 10 a.m., in the College Union recreation room. Dr. Newsom is a member of the Ithaca College Board of Trustees and a former president of New York University. His speech will be the keynote of the academic ceremony, which is intended to acquaint students, particularly freshmen, with some of the procedures of a formal academic occasion.

The Convocation will begin with a faculty procession in formal regalia, led by Dr. MacInnes, college marshal, at 9:30 from Dorm 3 to the recreation room.

Included on the program will be the salutation by Dr. Dillingham, greetings from Herman E. Muller, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, and the invocation and benediction by Father Murphy. Music on the program will include the processional, "Trumpet Voluntary" by Jeremiah Clarke, the recessional, "Fantasie in G" by J. S. Bach, and selections by the School of Music Choir under the direction of Donald Craig.

Because it is not possible to seat everyone in the recreation room, there will be television sets in the College Union, the Union lounge, and rooms 1 and 5, which will receive the broadcast direct from the recreation room on the Ithaca cable.

Fall Convocation is planned for the benefit of all students, and attendance, although not compulsory, is urged.

Hamlin Outlines Pledging Program

The Inter-Fraternity Council of Ithaca College, under the leadership of Ray Hamlin, president, has passed the following requirements for pledging this fall:

1. Any prospective pledge must have been a student at I.C. at least one semester prior to this.
2. Any prospective pledge must have maintained a 2.00 index for the semester immediately preceding.
3. Any prospective pledge must not be on either academic or social probation this semester.

Physical Therapy transfer students who are first semester juniors are exceptions and may pledge this fall.

Fall rushing will conclude this week and all bids will be due in the Dean's office on Monday, October 14. Silence Week, during which no upperclassmen may discuss fraternities or sororities with rushees, will be October 14-21. Actual pledging will begin October 21 and will end December 8.

I.F.C., which governs all fraternities and sororities at I.C., is composed of representatives from all thirteen Greek organizations in campus. This year's officers are: Ray Hamlin, (Delta Sigma Pi) president; Mike James (Delta Kappa) vice president; Karen Ryan (Delta Phi Zeta) secretary; and Donny Seacord (Rho Mu Theta) treasurer. This year's advisor is Dean Hill.

Student Council Report

by Joe Mooney

On the agenda of the Student Council meeting of October third were the freshman class elections and reports by the different committees of Council.

It has been decided by Council that the Freshman Class petitions for office have to be in on the weekend of November tenth and eleventh. The Primary will be on the fifteenth and the final election will be held on the twenty-seventh.

The Grievance Committee reported that there will be lights on the walks leading from the Student Union to Friends Hall. The lights will be a welcome change from the nightmarish trek across the "tundra," which is now the case for students using the library. There will be grievance boxes in the Student Union, the downtown library, and Quarry and Valentine Dorms.

The Food Committee reported that it is setting up a meeting with Saga, in order to air complaints received. The most outstanding complaint is dirty silverware and glasses.

The Council meets every Thursday at 7:15 p.m. All students are urged to take part in their government.

Farquhar Catches Touchdown Pass As Bombers Rack Up Golden Eagles

The Ithaca College Bombers, after leading only 15-6 at the half, came to life and scored at will in the second canto to capture the last game of the current series as they racked up the Golden Eagles, from Brockport, 42-6. The win was the second in a row for the Bombers and their sixth straight over the hapless Eagles.

The first score for the Ithacans came four plays after a fumble recovery by Blase Iuliano with Ed Farquhar catching an aerial from John Cornick good for 46 yards. Sam Curko booted the conversion, the first of four for him.

Gene Monje scored Ithaca's second touchdown on a five yard dash after he had intercepted a Brockport pass and returned it to the home club's 19-yard line. The Bombers went for the two-point conversion, Len Muhlich snaring a pass from Cornick making the score 15-6 at the intermission.

Two long punt returns at the start of the second half seemed to spark the Bombers and they were never again in any serious trouble. Muhlich made the first runback down the sideline from his own 25 to the Brockport 15. From there Monje took it in for the score on a sweep of the left side of the line behind some excellent blocking provided by big Roger Hayes and Pete Reilly. Captain Sam Curko again added the point.

The other runback came less than three minutes later. Monje gathered in the ball on his own ten and with the aid of some good crisp blocking he was on his way only to be caught from behind on the Brockport 24. Bob Glaier who had a real fine running day took the ball to the one on four consecutive cracks at the line and from there quarterback Tony Cerullo bootlegged it over the final stripe untouched.

Monje added another score, his 6th touchdown of the young season as he scampered 11 yards again over his left side to set the stage for another Curko kick and all toll it made the score 35-6.

Dave Van Valkenburg tailed the last score of the afternoon as he went high in the air to grab a toss from Cerullo and from there on it was all over except for the hand shaking.

College Booters Lose To Come-From-Behind Hobart

by Lou Ricks

The Ithaca College Varsity soccer team dropped its second game in three starts bowing to a scrappy come-from-behind Hobart squad 3-2 last Saturday afternoon on the Titus Flats Fields.

Right Wing Don Fazio, taking a pass from Inside Left, Steve O'Dea, put Ithaca into a quick lead booming the ball into the Hobart net, with only 54 seconds gone in the first period. I.C. kept up the pressure completely dominating play around the visitors' goal, but couldn't take advantage of its scoring opportunities for the remainder of the period.

The second period started out slowly with neither team able to mount an effective scoring attack until Hobart knitted the score with 15:38 elapsed. The Blue and Gold immediately rebounded taking just 16 seconds to regain the lead as Left Wing Marty Christenson bounced the ball off a Hobart defender to give the home team a 2-1 lead which stood at half time.

The third period saw The Statesmen come out strongly, controlling play around The Bomber goal capped off by Dave Gibson's first of two goals which once again tied the score. Action again returned to the Hobart end of the field, and again the Bombers failed to capitalize on its scoring opportunities.

With only 52 seconds gone in final quarter the Geneva-men took the lead as Gibson tallied the final goal of the day for either team. The final period was played out with the Hobart defense successfully thwarting several Bomber scoring threats.

The absence of Gerd Lutter, who paced the booters in their first two games, was sorely felt as they failed to embrace numerous scoring opportunities. Coach Carp Wood gave credit to Don Fazio, Steve O'Dea, Marty Christenson, Steve Habecker, Andy Palmer, Tom Sabatelle, Rich Meyer, and Dave Halen for well-played games.

After three home games the Bombers take to the road to play national power Hartwick College in Oneonta, and Clarkson Tech in Potsdam.

EITHER "BAN THE BEANIES" OR "GET MCGUCKIN" CRY FROSH

by Mike Ayers

Ban the Beanie or Ban the Bomb, it looks as if the next war will be fought right here at IC; over abandonment and not disarmament.

IC's upperclassmen stared in awe Monday at a host of "Ban the Beanie" warnings inscribed over the South Hill Campus. Three notorious enforcers glanced at the underclassmen's handiwork, probably done in stencil and an Ajax compound.

"With five days left," they commented "surely frosh aren't planning and insurrection." "Why not? Every year they do and every year it doesn't work. Maybe one day it will."

"Let's get them," remarked one enforcer. With the speed of sound they covered the IC campus. "Hey Frosh off the grass. You there, off the grass I said. Sound off! Fine. Here's your summons, you'd better be there."

The pattern was the same for the next 10 minutes. There were no frosh left. The three paused to light up. "Guess that showed them." "Wise frosh."

"You don't think they'll take them off before Saturday's game with Cortland, do you?" "They had better not," the fat enforcer said, choking on his cigarette.

"They tried to do that last year and it didn't work. Besides Student Council will make them wear them two weeks longer if they do. Same old arrogance," he managed to say through his heavy cough.

"Too bad they don't try something different, something original like stealing Student Council President or the Judge of Kangaroo Court," one thought.

"I wonder why they don't practice for the tug 'o war Saturday," the short lawman said with a gleam in his eye. "Heh, Heh," the others snickered.

Peace Corps to Hold Placement Exam October 19

The Peace Corps will be conducting its next placement examination on Saturday, October 19, at 8:30 a.m. in the Ithaca Post Office.

This examination will not be competitive, and will serve as a guide for the Peace Corps in determining the overseas assignments for which applicants are best qualified.

Students need not have filled out a questionnaire prior to the examination, but they should do so as soon as possible.

Upon completion of the Placement Examination, the applicant will enter a training program covering five general areas: U.S. History and Culture, history and culture of the host country, first aid instruction, physical conditioning, and refresher courses in the specific skill to be used in the host country.

Radio 600

by Bob Brinkley

Dear Bob,

I've been wondering whether or not to take a course in phonetics. I know very little about the speech department and less about the course entitled Phonetics. Could you give me a little information about them?

Sincerely,
Speechless

The Speech department is located in the GREY building downtown next to the library. Inside its Grey walls you'll find Grey desks, Grey chairs, and in some instances, Grey people. Since my favorite kind of things come in GREY, I have nothing to say about the speech department dat ain't just great. As for the specific course known as Phonetics, I can only give you a definition I once heard. Phonetics is the study of grunts and groans. It was this definition that led us in the Radio and Television department to the manufacturing and distribution of the Ithaca College Speech Doll. You wind it up and it grunts incoherently at you. Then it hands you a phonetically transcribed copy of the conversation. I hope that this answers your question. (Probably it won't, but what did you expect for free?)

I guess the Public Relations department of WICB is out somewhere having public relations, for no information concerning the station or its activities were given to me this week. Perhaps they're trying to keep everything a closely guarded secret. This, of course, means that next week will have to be the week of deadly exposure for the whole underworld secret society known as WICB. I personally will dedicate myself to this task.

With the lack of information concerning the radio station in this column in mind, and realizing that several of you have a driving urge to find out about this operation, (you certainly would not have ruined your eyes and rotted your mind by reading this far if you were not interested.) I would like to recommend the column in the paper this week concerning both the radio and television operations here at Ithaca College. You might even find out that radio has a picture now and they call it Television.

Letters

that the girls had no second chance or anyone to appeal to remains the question at hand. The decision was made and acted upon without any grant of appeal.

Shouldn't the punishment fit the crime, if there was such a crime? Again I ask, what is the W.S.G. for?

Myrna Gilman

Dear Editor:

All service machines (i.e. telephones, cigarette machines etc.) are placed in the College Union and dormitories with the stipulation that they will be removed if any vandalistic acts cause damage to them.

Last week two telephones in the Union lobby were ripped from their wires. Student Council realizes that acts such as these are committed not by a majority of the student body, but rather, by a few "individuals." However the contract by which these machines are placed in college buildings still stands and a few can force inconvenience on the entire student body.

With these facts in mind Student Council is asking each student to do his part in seeing that acts such as those which took place in the Union last week be discontinued.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Student Council

Dear Editor:

After reading the first issue of the Ithacan this past week, I am beginning to doubt the effectiveness of its service. One would think that after a summer's vacation there would be more worthy news to print than a feature story of the summer activities of an Ithaca College Senior. Surely, some of our professors must have worthy information of their summer's accomplishments that might be of interest to the student body. I would rather see a school paper of only four pages if this would mean the elimination of this kind of fill.

Sincerely,
Joel Holzer
